Road bike and e-bike rentals in the Algarve

Algarve is the most important tourist region of Portugal and is located in the south of Portugal. This beautiful region with its wonderful nature and white sandy beaches is perfect for road cycling. The sunny climate and all-year-round warm climate make the Algarve the perfect region for a great cycling holiday. The roads are perfect for road biking. They're very good quality roads with lots of challenging climbs and also absolutely amazing landscapes and scenery.

The lovely Portuguese weather, the sunny climate, and all year round warm climate makes the Algarve one of the best cycling destination in Portugal. Besides the always nice weather, the Algarve is also known for its beautiful old towns, the rocky coasts in the east and in the west of the capital Faro a more than 80 kilometers long coastal strip with all tourist spots and long stretches of beaches. It also seems like in some old towns or villages time has stood still and therefore offers beautiful sights for the culture sniffers.
