Itinerary

Day 1

Check in

Check-in around 14.00 at the 4* hotel in Follina. This accommodation is specifically chosen to enable you to ride out into the best local cycling countryside right from the front gate. There will be a briefing for the next day's activities and for the Gran Fondo Prosecco.

Day 2

Friday 60/70km

In the morning you go for a beautiful ride in the Prosecco hills around Follina. You will cycle through the old First World War areas, passing the Piave River before reaching the Prosecco Valdobbiadene hills. Here you will taste superior wines and excellent food. You will visit the famous "Osteria Senza Oste" wine cellar.

Day 3

Saturday 70km

On today's trip, you will climb the hills of one of the best-known and important areas of Northern Italy for its wine production. You will go up to Cartizze Hills, close to Valdobbiadene, which is the real heart of the wine culture, where everything is a vineyard. Different villages, vineyards, evocative horizons, history, arts, and emotions rise up after every single turn. After a short climb, you will reach Refrentolo, you go down to Solighetto and at the end of the steep turns, you will turn left. Really interesting can be to reach the "Molinetto Della Croda", which is really wonderful and must be seen. From the Center of Col San Martino, you will go through Guia and Maine which go up with a gradual slope. Once you reach the Pedemontana public street you will turn left towards Valdobbiadene. You will finally arrive at Valdobbiadene.

Day 4

Sunday 96km

Spectacular and for everyone. The route is 96 kilometers and will have a total altitude of 1550 meters. The start will be in Valdobbiadene, you head towards Tarzo. From here you continue to Reserva, Refrontolo, San Pietro di Feletto, Conegliano, and Collalto. In the second part, the route follows Sernaglia Della Battaglia, Col San Martino, Guia, and Follo until arriving in Valdobbiadene.

Day 5

Monday Departure

Departure day... Time to say goodbye, a good flight back home, or a pleasant stay in Italy. If there is time you can do a short local bike ride.
